On the case of Curtis flower, my role in the case and everything he told me this is sure.

I met Curtis flower while incarcerated at U.S. D. C. penitentiary n.s. At Unit 32C bldg. it was lock-down and they put me in a cell next to Curtis flower. He & Curtis started talking the day they put me in the cell. The first day he wrote me a letter telling me he wasn't mad at my sister and they sentenced him to death. At that time he sent me a pack of cigarettes and told me anything I wanted just let him know. We talk about what was going on, on the street and how I wouldn't wait for nothing while I was around him. Being in lock-down there wasn't no cigarettes, I.V. or radios. Only death row inmates could have them. So Curtis sent me his radio so I'd have something to listen to.

The days past and he was telling me, only if she could make my sister out of a lie he would be set free. And that when he ask me would I help him, he stated from the beginning he would give me thousands of dollars once he get out and while I was lock-up he would give me cigarettes & any canteens I wanted. At that time I was in need of a lot of things so I ask him what could I do? He wrote me a letter telling me to write his lawyer a letter which he wrote for me to rewrite. Stating, that my sister Patricia was lying to get money for me to get out of jail. He stated, telling a lie was simple. And whatever they said to me never change nothing I said. So I ask him did Ann, my sister see him that morning and he said he didn't know whether she seen him but he seen her. So I ask Curtis did he committ those murders and at that time 2010-291 said man I have no knowledge of nothing about that and he told me if you want me to keep helping you stay out of jail.

So I wrote a letter to his lawyer telling him I put my sister up to saying everything spoke on stand. Curtis lawyer sent me a copy of everything my sister said and to me to remember everything and Curtis use to go to the layman where we could talk ~~but~~ but the bars and no one hear us. He use to have me repeat what was wrote on those papers. Everything was going like plan. Until one day I wrote Curtis and told him I was having second thoughts. Curtis started cussing me out calling me a weak mother-fucker and punk. And he started saying I lied to him to smoke cigarettes & eat canteens. So I told him, man I'm going to help you I'll tell the judge anything you want me to.

So we went to a county jail and Curtis lawyer said he wanted me to say everything he told me to. He was the one who told me to say my sister ~~was~~ was a liar. And to say yes sir & no sir to the D.A. and not get mad. He said Curtis would be sick one day and he going to buy you anything you want. Just don't back out. He also told me, what do us black people care about 4 white people being dead. They use to kill us so why worry.

And hearing this come from his lawyer it was surprise; But happy because he knew it was lying and at ask him was he going to make sure Curtis gave me that money and he said yes. The lawyer said, after a test it will take a year or 2 but I'll be receiving a lot of money he stated, thousands.

So I told the lawyer I'll say whatever it take. After going to court and testifying on Curtis behalf we was brought back to jailman together and Curtis went back on his word. So we had an argument and Feb 2010 2012, he just used me and he wasn't paying me nothing.
So I said to Curtis you dirty killer and he got mad and said it'll be free soon And you meaning, one might end up missing as well.

 So we stop talking for a couple weeks. And at told another guy it was going to write The D.A. And let him know Curtis and his lawyer told me to lie on stand. That when Curtis wrote me and told me he was sorry and start sending me cigarettes again. So one day in the dayroom Curtis told me that's he had a lot on his mind and he couldn't keep living like this. He said he would kill his self. And I said if you was an innocent you would not be thinking like that. And he said homoboy, that's the problem, I'm not innocent. And I said, man you had me on stand lying when you was guilty all along. ~~After~~ After that I ask Curtis who keep him and he stated he did it himself but made like it was 2 peop.les. Something like a movie he once watch.
 And when he said that he was smiling. from that day on stay in an argument everyday. That last day in the dayroom he ask if if he gave me some money would I kill someone for him. And I said who that he said his uncle. So I said no point blank then he said he buried the guns somewhere in the country.
 Then one day he wrote me a letter and said he was joking when he told me that. And stop feeling too suspicious on the fir. Curtis tried to throw hot water on me one day I walk by his cell. And threaten to kill me plenty of times.
 So I got the Lt. of the bldg. to mean me and after I left he wrote me letter saying if I told anyone what we talked about he would kill his self and it'll be to blame. I'm sorry for the role I played in this affair and I want to tell the truth. I hope that everything work out the right way.
